

Title I, Part A School-Parent Compact

The Options for Youth OFY - San Bernardino and the parents of the students participating in activities, services and programs funded by Title I, Part A, agree that the School-Parent Compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share in the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State high academic standards (ESSA Section 1116[d]).

OFY- SB will provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the children served under Title I, Part A to meet the challenging State academic standards, and the ways in which each parent will be responsible for participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children and positive use of extra-curricular time (ESSA Section 1116[d][1]):

OFY-San Bernardino specializes in developing and implementing programs that expand educational opportunities for public school students. Our Mission is to create an educational choice for students. Our staff connects with students to empower and inspire them to achieve their goals and make their dreams a reality.

OFY-San Bernardino combines individualized learning plans with self-esteem and leadership development, as well as a rigorous college-preparatory curriculum, to ensure that all students, regardless of their past school experiences, increase their options upon graduation for either post-secondary learning or entering the professional workplace.

OFY-San Bernardino parents support the schools efforts through attending orientations, family engagement nights (Back to School Night, Open House and LCAP Nights), attending Achievement Chats and through providing feedback through various surveys administered throughout the year. Additionally parents advise the principal through participation on our School Site Council and District English Learner Advisory Committee.

Describe how the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum the following means (ESSA sections 1116[d][2][A D]):

- (A) parent-teacher conferences in elementary schools, at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed at the compact relates to the individual
- (B) reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their educational programs

(D) ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and to the extent practicable, in a language that the family members can understand.

OFY- San Bernardino strives to strengthen communication through various methods.

- School websites and social media
- Translations and translation services that allow communication to be sent in the students' home language.
- Title I Annual Meetings
- LCAP Meetings
- Open House and Back to School Nights
- Parent Conferences/Workshops
- Progress Reports/Review Meetings
- Achievement Chats (each semester)
- Flyers and Monthly Newsletters
- Community Outreach
- Email, text messages through Remind, Talking Points and School Messenger -
- Student planners
- Parent Portal and Edmentum

This Compact was established by Options for Youth - San Bernardino on April 20, 2022 and will be in effect for the period through June 30, 2026. The school will distribute the Compact annually to all parents and family members of students participating in the Title I, Part A program on, or before: March 31.
